Annual Report for 2023-24(second term)

Annual Attendance 355 days out of 366 days

Introduction

Sansiddha is an exceptionally bright child who excels in various subjects, particularly mathematics. He quickly grasps new concepts and demonstrates proficiency in skip counting, backward counting, and other mathematical skills. Sansiddha is not only a quick learner but also friendly and approachable, displaying a positive attitude towards learning and interacting with others.

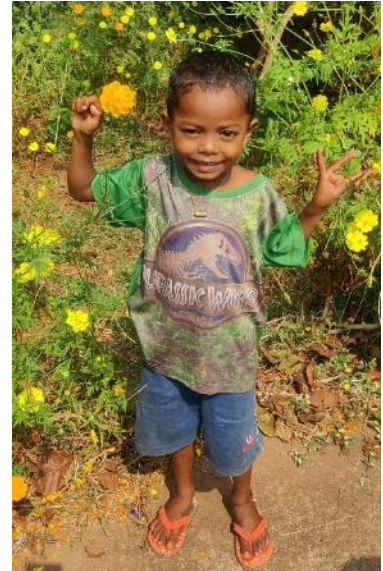

Projects

Sansiddha is an attentive and talented student who actively participates in project sessions. He effectively communicates his ideas and demonstrates a good understanding of the topics discussed. His improvement is notable, particularly in his ability to comprehend and discuss various topics, such as good habits and types of houses.

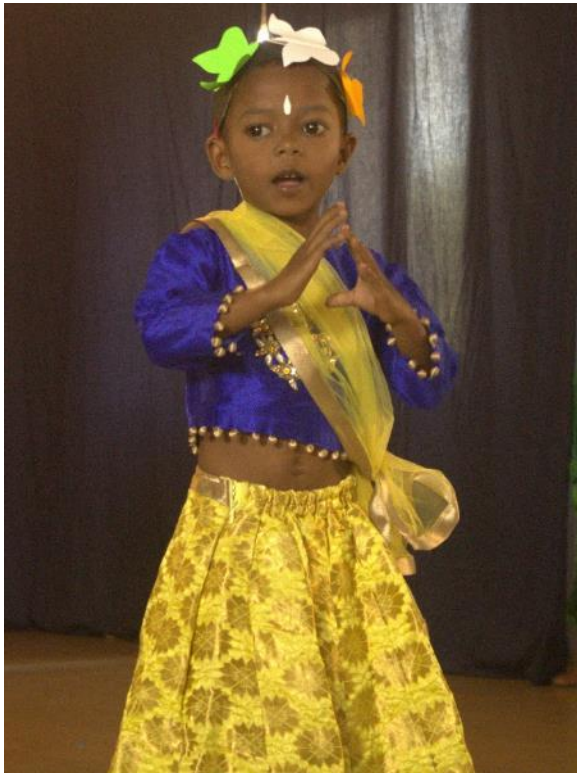

Mathematics

Sansiddha exhibits perseverance in solving challenging problems and has a strong understanding of breaking numbers up to 10. While he retains concepts well, occasional sickness hinders his progress in maths, indicating a need for consistent practice and support.

English

Sansiddha is an intelligent student with a quick ability to memorize songs, rhymes, and dialogues. Participating in the play "The Tree's Complaint" for the 21st February celebration, Sansiddha took on the role of a sadhak. While he was allocated a few lines, he encountered difficulty in pronouncing some of the words due to their complexity. This challenge may indicate an opportunity for him to focus on improving his pronunciation skills through practice and support.

In addition to his involvement in the play, Sansiddha has learned various rhymes in class, including "The Ants Go Marching," "1,2,3,4,5 Once I Caught a Fish Alive," "Five Little Monkeys," among others. His ability to swiftly memorize these rhymes reflects his keen interest in learning and his aptitude for retaining information.

In drama, Sansiddha took on the role of Sadhak and performed it with excellence, showing an ability to memorize lines and portray characters effectively. Additionally, he has a passion for singing, further showcasing his diverse talents and interests.

Arts and Crafts

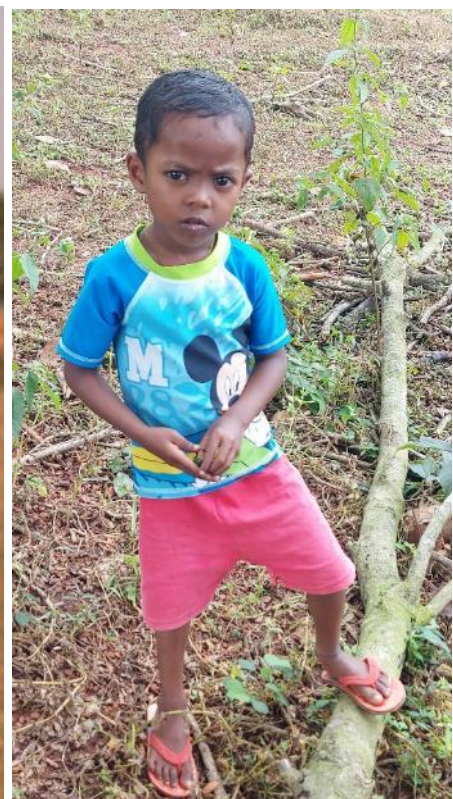

Sansiddha's artwork often features gardens and scenic landscapes, executed with cleanliness and attention to detail. While he sometimes requires assistance in paper folding, his favourite colour is red.

Games

Sansiddha is a very nice and hardworking boy. He is capable of doing everything quickly and does not like to fall behind on any task. He consistently arrives early at school, volunteers in class, and is a great leader among his peers. Sansiddha is a curious and energetic boy who always maintains a calm and positive mindset.
