Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

INTRODUCTION

Sanjana is a quiet and charming girl who eagerly attends school. She finds great joy in playing with her friends, often arriving at school well before the start of the day. She particularly enjoys singing songs with actions and shares a special friendship with Baisi. Sanjana's regular attendance at school is noteworthy; however, on rare occasions, she may miss school due to village functions. Her interactions with her teachers and peers are always marked by her excellent attitude and well-mannered behaviour.

Sanjana takes pride in maintaining cleanliness and hygiene. After arriving at school, she and her fellow students are taken for a bath, which she undertakes with enthusiasm, as the journey to school can leave them dusty from the village roads. She continues to maintain her cleanliness during meal times, diligently washing her hands before partaking in her meals. She is mindful not to waste food, portioning what she can consume, and displaying an eagerness to consume all the vegetables and fruits presented to her. Sanjana sits neatly during meal times, making an effort to prevent any spills and always finds pleasure in eating.

CHANTING AND SINGING

Sanjana actively participates during circle time, sitting attentively for chanting mantras. She recites the mantras fluently and clearly, displaying her competence in these recitations. Her chanting is done with confidence, and she is able to recite numerous mantras. Furthermore, Sanjana is a delightful singer, capably performing the songs and rhymes taught to her. She has acquired a repertoire of Hindi songs and a variety of rhymes in both Hindi and English. Her enthusiasm for song and rhyme is exemplified by her participation in accompanying actions while singing.

PROJECTS

In her project work, Sanjana has completed topics on vegetables and fruits. She is proficient in naming different fruits and vegetables, as well as identifying their colours. Her engagement with these topics was joyful, and she took pleasure in exploring the textures and characteristics of the fruits and vegetables. Sanjana crafted models of fruits and vegetable puppets, which added a creative dimension to her project work. Her presentation, although met with some nerves, revealed her commitment and best efforts.

MATHEMATICS

Sanjana demonstrates a keen interest in mathematics, often participating in group counting activities with her friends. When tasked with counting independently, she can successfully count up to 30. She enjoys collecting various objects such as leaves, sticks, stones, and more, and subsequently counting them. These items also serve as tools for her to create patterns and engage in addition and subtraction exercises. Her eagerness to learn is evident in her continuous pursuit of expanding her counting skills. She actively participates in math activities and willingly assists others in completing their tasks.

CELEBRATIONS AND FESTIVALS

Sanjana wholeheartedly participates in various celebrations and festivals. During the Rath Yatra, she relishes the experience of pulling the rath and indulging in the Prasad. Her participation in the drama "Chi Chi Diya" on July 5th showcased her excellent performance, where she portrayed a bird character with grace. On August 15th, during the celebration of Independence Day, she contributed by performing a dance to the tune of "I Salute My Flag," demonstrating her courage in the face of initial nervousness. Sanjana also embraced Raksha

Bandhan on August 30th, enjoying the Rakhi ceremony and partaking in laddoos. On September 7th, during the Janmashtami celebration, she delivered an exceptional dance performance and took delight in adorning the costumes. Her enthusiastic singing of "1234" on Ganesh Chaturthi, celebrated on September 19th, marked another memorable moment of participation in festive activities. Sanjana's active involvement in these celebrations exemplifies her spirit of enthusiasm and joyful participation.
