Report for 2024-25 (Second term)

Introduction

Sourav is seven years old. He attends school regularly and comes from home with his friends. He needs to improve in cleanliness.

English

Sourav is making progress in his learning journey. He is able to tell the sounds of letters but still has confusion in similar letters. He actively participates in the story session and tries to answer in words. When learning lyrics, he needs repetition. He can identify some letters and makes an effort to arrange them.

Project

Insects topic

Sourav has shown interest in insects and enjoys observing them closely. He is curious about these small insects. He has learnt the names of some insects and can recognize common ones with ease. Sourav concentrated while drawing insects, carefully paying attention. Singing about insects made the learning process more enjoyable.

Shapes: Sourav enjoys singing songs related to the topic. He tries to remember shape names by looking at books and engaging in activities such as the shape maze and making shapes with straws. He enjoys group activities and actively answers questions by raising his hand.

National Symbols: Sourav is very smart and tries to answer questions. He listens attentively but sometimes gets distracted. He enjoyed learning the lotus song and listening to the story of the peacock and the crane. Watching the video helped him understand the story better. He also made drawings of the national symbols.

Math

Sourav always tries his best in solving story sums, however he finds it difficult to solve problems mentally. He has learnt addition and subtraction games, and by playing these games, he has improved. He was very excited to learn numbers recognition and writing them. He easily writes the numbers up to 100 and can recognize them. He writes without any help. In the double coding abacus, it was challenging for him to show and solve on the abacus. But he tried his best.

Art

Sourav find paper folding challenging but has remembered the steps for the ones he has learnt. He needs to improve his folding skills. His favourite activity is solving puzzles, and he enjoys working on them with his classmates. In drawing, Sourav puts in his best effort and creates beautiful art works.

Games

Sourav loves running. He is happy and loves playing with his mates. His favourite game is ice and water. He likes to play on the field. He follows the instructions. He is always on time for games.
