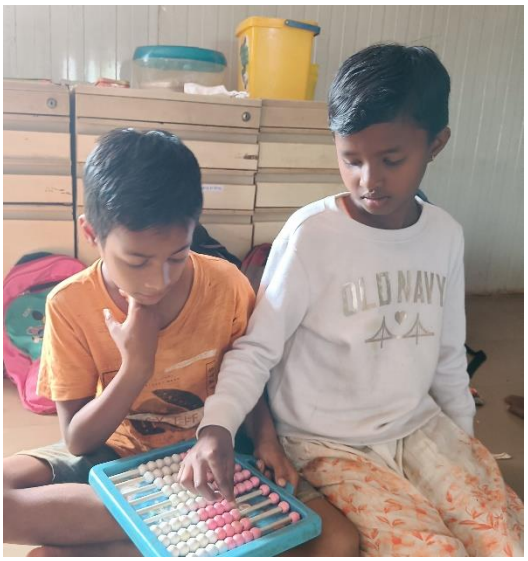
Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

Maths

Lavanya is a focused student studying 3rd-grade maths, but occasionally gets distracted by her friends. She works on her handwriting and is actively engaged in learning various mathematical concepts. She finds rounding numbers a bit challenging but excels in unit conversions and actively participates in group activities.



Projects-

Birds

Lavanya‘s boundless curiosity about birds and their contributions to daily life motivated him to participate in the topic. During bird-watching sessions, he observed local bird species and honed his skills in recognizing them by their calls. While he was sometimes slower in providing responses, he actively attempted to answer questions in class. He displayed an eagerness to learn new terms related to birds and to understand distinctions among bird types, habitat, and adaptation concepts. His contribution to the group's book, featuring vibrant bird illustrations and descriptions, demonstrated his dedication to the project. Santosh's enthusiasm for learning about birds further grew through bird documentaries, where he gained insight into birds' prey, habitats, adaptations, and various species.

Occupation

Lavanya wants to become a dentist when she grows up because she wants to clean everybody's teeth in the village and keep their teeth clean. In the class she had written some beautiful lines about a dentist. She remembered all the lines and did a role play on it and presented it to her friends in the class. She had made a very beautiful drawing of a dentist and had also coloured it beautifully.

Hindi

Lavanya is a hardworking girl who reads and writes with great concentration. Her handwriting is neat, but she needs to work on spelling and sentence structure. She's helpful to classmates who struggle with speaking in class. She enjoys self-reading and copywriting and is gradually improving her understanding.

English

Lavanya is a delightful and charming student who has a genuine passion for her

English class. Her attentive nature is evident as she consistently listens to her teacher and arrives punctually for class. Lavanya is proficient in English, although not entirely fluent; nevertheless, she makes concerted efforts to communicate in English. She speaks audibly and clearly, although her pronunciation may need some refinement. Her commitment to maintaining good posture during class is commendable, demonstrating her respect for the learning environment.

Lavanya's significant progress in reading English storybooks reflects her enthusiasm for the subject. She takes great pleasure in reading these stories and has improved considerably in her reading abilities. Lavanya now successfully tackles level 3-4 storybooks. However, there are instances where she encounters unfamiliar words, prompting her to seek clarification from her teacher. Following the completion of a story, Lavanya engages in the essential practice of retelling it to the teacher to gauge her understanding. While she manages to narrate the story effectively, there may be brief pauses or instances where she reverts to Hindi when English eludes her temporarily. These minor challenges do not dampen her overall dedication to her studies.

Lavanya sings well with proper pronunciation and has a strong passion for singing. She is curious about listening to the English language with different accents. Lavanya is skilled at participating in plays and memorizing lines, and she enjoys watching English movies, with a good understanding of the content. She can remember poems for an extended period.

Odia

Lavanya sits attentively in class, understands the language well, and has made significant progress in speaking properly. She now participates confidently and enjoys all class activities. Lavanya loves singing songs with proper pronunciation, takes an interest in counting in Odia through rhymes, and listens attentively to stories while understanding them. She also enjoys watching short, animated films based on stories.

Arts and Crafts

Lavanya likes to do drawings of cartoon and she also loves to draw with oil pastel colours. She loves to draw different types of shapes and object. She also likes to make patterns and she is very interested in making arts of colours. She is attentive and she listens to what she is told in the class.

Puzzles

Lavanya excels at puzzles, with capabilities extending to 70, 80, and 100-piece puzzles. She finds joy in admiring the puzzle images upon completion. Lavanya is very attentive and focused when working on puzzles. However, she sometimes becomes chatty when she feels bored. She requires assistance when completing 100-piece puzzles.

Games and Sports

Lavanya is in Boron group. She likes to do exercises like side sit-up. She likes football because she wants to use her leg muscles. Lavanya is always running and kicking the ball. She likes to play fun games like hide and seek. She never gets tired while playing.
