

Chinmayee Paraja

Date of birth-29th Dec-20

Annual report for 2023 -24 (Second term)

Introduction: Chinmayee exudes cheerfulness and excitement, finding immense joy in attending school. She is a friendly four-year-old girl who regularly accompanies her mother from a nearby village to school.

Circle Time: During chanting sessions, Chinmayee sits attentively and attempts to join in the chanting. She has learned chants like "asotama sat gamaya," "shri vakratunda mahakaya," and "om anandamayee," displaying enthusiasm for participating in these activities.

Activities: Chinmayee delights in playing with colours and scribbling on paper. She enjoys colouring and particularly loves finger painting, revelling in the opportunity to explore different paint colours.

English: In English class, Chinmayee sits attentively and eagerly observes the pictures in her books. She listens carefully to stories and is in the process of learning new words such as "sun," "flower," "elephant," and

"bird." Although she may feel nervous when asked questions, she demonstrates an eagerness to learn.

Math: Chinmayee is currently learning to count from one to ten, with the guidance of her teacher. She enjoys decorating objects and engaging in counting activities, displaying an interest in exploring numbers and shapes.

Programs: Chinmayee enjoys attending school programs, particularly relishing the opportunity to watch dances performed by her peers. On February 21st, she participated in a program for the first time, performing the song "O Sweet Mother." Although she felt nervous and shy on stage, her willingness to participate reflects her growing confidence and enthusiasm.
