Attendance- 183 out of 183 days

Introduction

Kansula is seven years old. She sometimes wears clean clothes and attends school regularly. She resides in the hostel with her elder sister and prefers to eat poha. She is careful not to drop food on the floor.

Projects

1. Vegetables: Kansula displayed strong knowledge of vegetable names in English and was enthusiastic about learning. She contributed to the learning environment by asking riddles and sharing information about cauliflower. Her involvement in clay modelling and helping peers was commendable.

2. Health and Hygiene: Kansula actively participated in activities related to health and hygiene, understanding the steps for handwashing. She also contributed to preparing health and hygiene charts.

English

Kansula is an intelligent and quick learner who readily grasps words and songs. She is enthusiastic about learning new songs and has a strong interest in hearing stories. Her ability to remember dialogues, regardless of length, is commendable. Kansula enjoys participating in dramas and often assumes lead roles, such as Kuber in "Kuber and Ganesha" and the boy mouse in "The Mice Wedding." While she was a bit shy in the latter role, she performed it well.

Hindi

Kansula is a passionate learner who finds joy in creating drawings and weaving her stories. She enjoys narrating stories within the group, bringing her unique creativity to the table. Kansula shows immense interest in listening to stories from teachers and is quick to provide answers when questions are posed. She has embarked on learning the Hindi alphabet, successfully recognizing vowels (swar) and consonants, displaying impressive pronunciation skills. She has effortlessly grasped the names of shapes, vegetables, colours, and poems, exhibiting a remarkable pace of learning.

Maths

Kansula is a bright student who can quickly grasp new concepts with minimal explanation. She excels in addition, whether it's one digit by one digit, two digits by one digit, or two digits by two digits, with and without objects. Simple addition without carrying poses no for her, and she even improved her skills in addition with carrying after some initial struggles. She benefits from regular reinforcement; otherwise, she tends to forget. She is also proficient in identifying numbers that come before, after, and between other numbers, as well as more than and less than comparisons. Kansula demonstrates skill in skip counting by twos and, to a lesser extent, by threes. Initially, she had some trouble with subtraction, particularly distinguishing it from addition, but she eventually overcame this confusion and excelled in subtraction, especially when solving word problems.

Arts

Kansula takes delight in art class, especially in creating imaginative drawings and beautiful pictures. Her colouring skills are impressive, and she strives to improve further. In paper folding, she diligently follows the teachers' instructions, resulting in neat and well-executed folding.

Puzzles

Kansula prefers the challenge of solving puzzles independently, often choosing themes like "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Her concentration remains unwavering, and she extends her support to classmates in need. Kansula confidently tackles puzzles with 100 and 150 pieces.

Dance

Namita loves dancing and is shy about dancing alone. She can catch dance steps quickly and performs them well. She learned "Vrindavan Mein Gopi Aaye" and performed it during Janmashtami. She enjoys dancing to Zumba music.

Games

Kansula is a generally well-behaved child, but occasionally exhibits naughtiness during game sessions. She may quarrel with friends at times.
