Report for 203-24 (First Term)

Introduction

Chandan is a new child in the Bliss group, and his best friend is Mohan. He enjoys staying with Mohan and arrives at school on time. Upon reaching school, he takes a bath and changes into fresh clothes. He also tends to his toileting needs. Chandan has a preference for eating all the vegetables cooked in the school hostel. During circle time, he sits very nicely in a dhyana mudra and tries to participate in chanting. However, he faces some difficulties while chanting words correctly. Chandan enjoys singing animal songs and funny songs with actions, and he actively participates in group singing.

Languages

In language class, Chandan likes to read picture books with big colourful images. He has become capable of communicating with his friends in Hindi and has started speaking in Hindi. He enjoys listening to stories with puppets in Hindi and can answer questions about the story in Hindi. However, he faces difficulties in understanding English stories. After storytelling, he always enjoys participating in drama activities. He has learned some English words. In the "body parts" topic, he learned the names of external body parts and a song related to body parts. In the "myself" topic, he learned how to introduce himself in full sentences. In the "my family" topic, he learned words like mother, father, grandparents, brother, and sister through puppets and role play involving family members.

Mathematics

During math class, Chandan enjoys observing the colours of nature, feeling the patterns of flowers and leaves, and listening to the sounds in his surroundings. He learned the names of colours by observing nature, and he can recognize blue, black, brown, pink, green, red, orange, yellow, and white. He can count up to 5 by touching objects.

Skill work

He has a general interest in all art class activities, but he particularly enjoys drawing. He often draws flowers, butterflies, clouds, and more. He colours his drawings beautifully and maintains clean work. In paper folding, he occasionally needs teacher assistance.

Celebrations

Chandan enjoys participating in school functions and likes to wear costumes and apply makeup. On Ganesh Chaturthi, he performed a dance to the song "O My Friend Ganesha." He also made rakhis with beads and thread, celebrating Raksha Bandhan with all the children.

Games

Chandan is a smart and talented boy who excels in various activities like running, tree climbing, and exercise. He's quick in everything he does and enjoys games like "chain game," "ice and water," and "dog and bone." Chandan is attentive when learning and practicing yoga. While he's initially hesitant to play with other boys who occasionally scold him, he still enjoys games like football, musical chairs, and "fire on the mountain."
