Introduction

Manisha is a regular student who is known for her straightforwardness. She arrives at school neat and tidy, wearing clean clothes. She consistently maintains good personal hygiene. However, she often arrives late to school. She prefers to befriend students from her village and has a tendency to pick and choose vegetables during meals, but she now eats all the vegetables and finishes her food.

Circle Time

During circle time, Manisha sits nicely and chants all the mantras with a clear voice and pronunciation. She enjoys singing songs loudly and clearly in the group, but in the assembly, she becomes shy and sings very slowly. However, she quickly remembers new songs and loves to sing them. When she is alone and walking on the road, she sings songs very nicely.

Languages

Hindi

In language, Manisha likes listening to stories and is able to comprehend the entire story. She can answer questions related to the story and can retell the story within the group. However, she hesitates to retell the story alone, but when she does, she manages to narrate the full story. She enjoys performing small dramas based on the stories she listens to and remembers story sequences accurately.

In the "Myself" topic, Manisha created a book about herself, which includes drawings and paintings illustrating what she likes to eat and do. She learned to introduce herself in full sentences and can provide 5 to 7 lines of information about herself. In the "Body Parts" topic, Manisha learned the names of body parts in Hindi and can explain their functions in 3 to 4 lines. She also created drawings and paintings of her body parts. In the "My Family" topic, she learned about the relationships within her family, created drawings of her family members, and can provide 7 to 8 sentences about her family in Hindi.

Manisha is kind and helpful to everyone in the class. She is always enthusiastic when completing her work. She enjoys singing different rhymes with her friends. She listens attentively to the stories told in the group. She shows her interest when any new activities are done in the classroom. She can understand the stories told and can respond when asked but she is a bit shy. When she is told to perform anything in front of everybody, she feels shy, but she does everything in her group. She listened to a story of a thirsty crow with puppets and using real objects. She was really happy listening to this story.

In the topic of My Body she has learnt the names of the external body parts by using the body parts chart. With the repetition of the names she has learnt the names of the parts of a body.

Mathematics

she can recognize attributes such as big-small, heavy-light, fat-thin, big-bigger-biggest, and small-smaller-smallest. She also enjoys learning the names of colours and can replicate patterns by following the given examples. She has a good memory and quickly picks up new vocabulary.

She starts learning to count using various objects and a ganitmala (math tool). She can count forward in sequence up to 100, and her backward counting is quite proficient, with the only challenge being the transitional numbers. Manisha also excels in recognizing after and before numbers up to 20. She can identify numbers on a ganitmala without physically touching the beads, and she can perform addition with one-digit numbers using objects.
