(October 2023- March 2024)

INTRODUCTION

Bilanti finds great joy in solving puzzles and cherishes her friendship with Susila. Dancing is another passion of hers, and she particularly adores the colour pink for its beauty, especially when it adorns flowers. Known for her talkative and lively nature, she values her friendships and enjoys indulging in overacting, especially in front of didis.

Hostel Accommodation: Bilanti embraces hostel life, relishing the opportunity to learn and engage in various activities like singing and storytelling. She resides in close proximity to the school, away from her parents, at her relatives' house in Lenj Suku. Despite the distance, she eagerly commutes back home whenever possible, traveling by vehicle.

Health and Hygiene: Maintaining cleanliness comes naturally to Bilanti. She handles her laundry independently, occasionally seeking assistance from her relatives. Her clothes are neatly folded and organized in her cupboards. She takes pride in her appearance, wearing tidy attire for classes and occasionally applying oil to her body. Diligently, she tidies up her room and communal spaces before class, striving to uphold cleanliness standards.

Self-Sufficiency: Bilanti relishes meals, particularly enjoying puri with potato vegetables. She exercises moderation, consuming only what she needs and opting for seconds if hungry. With a focus on mindful eating, she chews with her mouth closed, minimizing spills. During meals, she maintains minimal conversation, ensuring a focused dining experience. Prior to meals, she diligently cleans her plate and glass and utilizes hand wash for hygiene.

Morning Ritual: Her day begins with chanting and prayers, setting a positive tone for the day ahead. Bilanti believes these rituals pave the way for auspicious outcomes. Additionally, she partakes in evening Satsang, contributing her voice to various songs and bhajans, further enriching her spiritual practices.

Shramdan: Engaging in shramdan activities, Bilanti actively participates in Chunai, diligently removing impurities from flat rice, red lentils, and various pulses and cereals. She derives satisfaction from this task, meticulously separating dirt from the grains, contributing to the collective effort of cleanliness.
