Introduction: Baisi eagerly looks forward to attending school and is punctual in his attendance. He hails from a distant village and has developed friendships with his peers at school.

Circle Time: During circle time, Baisi sits attentively and enthusiastically participates in chanting sessions. He endeavours to chant clearly and loudly, having learned several chants such as "asotoma satgamaya," "shri vakratunda mahakaya," "om anandamayee," "om bhur bhuvaswaha," "gurur brahama," and "tat savitur varam Rupam." Additionally, he has mastered songs like "stutiya aaradhana," "row row row boat," "lal lal motor," "majhi re majhi," "mene chuha pakad liya," "hathi aaya jhumke," "nache re mor," and "nache meri mor."

Activities: In art activities, Baisi enjoys drawing and colouring papers, displaying patience and dedication in completing his tasks. He particularly relishes finger painting and takes his time to ensure quality in his work.

English: During English class, Baisi focuses on listening to stories and admiring the accompanying pictures. He attempts to articulate new words learned in class, such as "sun," "flower," "elephant," "leaf," "cloud," and "bird," and responds to questions posed by the teacher.

Maths: In maths class, Baisi demonstrates attentiveness and proficiency in counting, having mastered numbers from one to twenty. He also shows an interest in colours, being able to identify a few like red, blue, green, and yellow. Baisi enjoys collecting leaves and stones to create designs and embellishing pictures with beads.

Programs: Baisi eagerly participates in school programs and delights in watching performances by older students. Although he still feels nervous on stage, he performed the song "O Sweet Mother" during a program on February 21st, displaying courage and enthusiasm.
