PUJA GUNTHA

DOB- 10th March'16

Attendance- 183 out 183 days

Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

INTRODUCTION

Pujas best friend Ankita who is from the same village as hers. She needs to open up more and be frank talking in the group with teachers. But she likes talking with her friends.

Hostel Accommodation: She preferred staying in the hostel rather than at home. She stays with her elder sister's room. Once in a week on Tuesdays she goes home and comes back the next at eight thirty in the morning.

Hygiene: She able to keep herself clean but needs to be more careful. She sometimes cleans her own clothes but often her elder sister cleans it for her. She puts oil on her hair and body and comes to the school neatly. She wears clean clothes often.

Self-Sufficiency: She loves eating paneer and potato sabji. She takes the food as much as she wants and asks for more if she wants in the second serve. She washes her hands and plates after and before eating. She likes to sit with her group mates and eat her meal.

Morning Ritual: She starts the class by doing chantings. After having the chanting finished she sometimes sings and recites poems.

ACADEMICS

English

Puja is generally a regular attendee in class, although she tends to speak less in English. She is more confident speaking in small groups but should practice speaking in front of the entire class. She has a particular interest in listening to stories from picture books and even enjoys enacting these stories through plays. Puja has participated in several plays, including "Because a Little Bug Went Kachu" and "The Enormous Turnip," in which she took on roles such as a wife and narrator. She's also learned a poem by Sri Aurobindo for Independence Day, showing her dedication to language learning.

Hindi

Puja has a fondness for listening to stories and occasionally creates drawings to craft short stories. Forming sentences can be a bit challenging for her. She has learned all the alphabets but struggles with the pronunciation of consonants like (ka, kha, ga, gha). However, by repeating the sounds, she is gradually improving. Recognizing (swar) can be confusing for some letters, but she can use these alphabets to form sentences. She has learned new songs and enjoys singing them, quickly memorizing the lyrics.

Maths

- Puja has made significant progress.
- She has mastered counting after and before numbers up to 200 with Ganit Mala.
- Puja can skip count by 2, 3, 4, and 5.
- She's proficient in one-to-one digit and one-to-two-digit addition and subtraction.
- Puja excels at problem-solving, even with real-life word problems.

- She's knowledgeable about shapes and patterns, recognizing squares, rectangles, triangles, circles, and semicircles.
- Puja is skilled in making patterns using these shapes by colour and shape.
- She's competent in number recognition and can write numbers.

Projects

Puja is a dedicated student who puts forth effort to remember information taught in class. Although she takes time to retain information and is a bit reserved in class discussions, she is attentive and focused on her studies.

Animals

In the Animals topic, Puja acquired knowledge about various aspects of animals, such as their names, habitats, offspring, physical characteristics, diet, and their role in assisting humans. She created drawings of different animals and enjoyed watching videos and listening to animal stories. She found it somewhat challenging to differentiate between domestic and wild animals but made an effort to learn.

Festivals

For the Festival topic, Puja learned about a variety of festivals, including those celebrated in her village and at school, as well as national festivals. She listened to festival stories and acquired knowledge about the reasons behind celebrating specific festivals. She also knew the names of gods and goddesses associated with these festivals.

National Symbols of India

In the National Symbols segment, Puja explored India's national symbols and learned about the national flower, bird, tree, and flag. She created drawings of these symbols and was introduced to significant figures like Mahatma Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru. She also learned about the reasons for the selection of these symbols.

Transportation

In the Transportation topic, Puja acquired knowledge about various types of vehicles, the invention of the wheel, and different modes of transport. Although she initially found it challenging to differentiate between different modes of transport and remember various vehicle components, she made an effort to understand. Puja also learned about vehicle storage and the roles of drivers, as well as road signals.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Arts and Crafts

In art class, Puja's penchant is for drawing, particularly scenes featuring flowers, houses, forests, clouds, mountains, and more. Her drawings are characterized by their beauty, neatness, and precision. She creates exquisite butterfly collages and excels in paper folding, executing folds and presses gracefully.

Dance

Puja has a liking for dancing and attempts to learn new dances, although she may require more repetitions to grasp the steps. She has an inclination towards Zumba dances. While she finds it challenging to copy the teacher's steps, she can be shy about dancing. She performed "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star" for Ganesh Chaturthi and worked hard to learn the steps for "Desh Rangila" on Independence Day. However, she enjoyed performing in front of an audience.

Puzzles

Puja has a strong affection for fairy-themed puzzles and is proficient at completing both 100 and 200 piece puzzles. She demonstrates remarkable concentration during puzzle activities.

Drama and singing

Puja likes to sing songs and enjoys singing. She has a little difficulty catching the lines. After repeating them for some time, she gradually picks up. She likes to sing "Imagine" the most. She felt difficulty in learning "Neem, Peepul, Banyan" and "Imagine," but after repeating them, she got the lines. She felt the Krishna poem easy to learn and could catch it fast. She also performed on it. She likes to dance. She has some confusion with steps, but after repeating, she can get them. She likes "Follow the Leader" dance the most.

GAMES AND SPORTS

She always goes for games, she likes to play minor games, and free games. As football is not her favorite game she is not very active while playing football.

SHRAMDAN

In shramdan she helps in cleaning the girl's hostel at six thirty in the morning every day. She helps her elders to broom and mope the steps or the floors or to take water for them if the water is not coming in the morning.

CELEBRATION AND FESTIVALS