Introduction

Shruti is six years old. She stays in the hostel. Her family is living as a nuclear family having her parents, two sisters and a brother. The eldest sister Gurubari is studying in a college in Koraput, Sandhya and her brother Manoj are studying in the same school as Shruti. But Sandhya is in Perseverance group and Manoj is in Receptivity group. Her father is a farmer and mother is a housewife.

Project

Animals: Shruti actively participated in discussions and openly shared her thoughts and observations about animals. She displayed impressive understanding and memory of the topic, as seen in her ability to speak about various animals. Her meticulous drawing of a sheep and dedication to watering plants reflected her positive attitude towards learning.

Flowers: During the flowers topic, Shruti's positive attitude and commitment to learning were evident. She worked diligently and quietly, ensuring her work was satisfactory. Her reflection on learning from flowers about gentleness and openness highlighted her thoughtful engagement with the topic.

Clothes:

Shruti is the youngest child in the group and has joined recently in this group, but still she has caught up with the other children in this group. She is very good in grasping most of the things. Her drawings are very beautiful. She was able to tell the process of making clothes without any problem. When she learnt how to put buttons, she was very happy to put the buttons and playing games on clothes. She also folded the clothes very beautifully. The big ones were a little tough for her, but the smaller shirts were very easy for her to fold.

Hindi

She enjoys singing songs and listening to stories in class. While she takes time to retell stories, she is making progress in learning Hindi letters, although identifying them remains a challenge. She has also started reading some words, albeit slowly.

Math

Shruti is able to comprehend and remember the math skills she has been taught in this reporting time. She is able to accurately solve addition and subtraction related word problems. Whenever she seems to be falling behind, and is given individual attention, she can easily cope up. (Please refer to the group report for more information).

English

Shruti is the youngest in this group and also joined late from the younger group but is very quick in learning anything. She is willing to learn anything that is taught to her. She has the curiosity in learning everything. When she started learning the alphabets she could grasp it very quickly, both capital letters and the small letters. She was very quick in arranging the alphabets in its sequence. When she learnt the sounds it wasn't difficult for her to learn them. She is able to arrange without seeing or copying others. She is very attentive while listening to stories.

After hearing the story, she is able to answer the questions in English that are asked. Can also the letters and recognize them. She is very fond of hearing stories.

Art

Shruti displays a genuine passion for art, actively participating in various activities such as drawing, collage, and pepper folding. She demonstrates an eagerness to learn and pays attention during class. Shruti has shown proficiency in creating frog, flower, and Pikachu through pepper folding, and her drawings often feature trees and flowers. Her enthusiasm for exploring different techniques and subjects in art class is commendable.

Dance

Shruti displays proficiency in various dance styles and strives to execute each step beautifully. She occasionally adds her own creative touches to the choreography. Energetic and eager to learn, she actively participates in dance classes.

Puzzle

Shruti enjoys the puzzles of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. She prefers solving it with her best friend Vaishali. Shruti comes for class before time and helps in taking out the puzzles.

Sense

Shruti embraces the opportunities to learn in the senses class and eagerly participates in various activities. She demonstrates a commitment to completing tasks efficiently and assisting her peers. Engaging in games such as "mirror walk" and "Chinese whisper" enhances her overall experience.

Games

Shruti maintains a cheerful demeanour throughout games, displaying happiness and enthusiasm while engaging in exercises and playing games like ice and water and rani kabaddi. She particularly enjoys jumping activities and demonstrates improvement in running and jumping skills.
