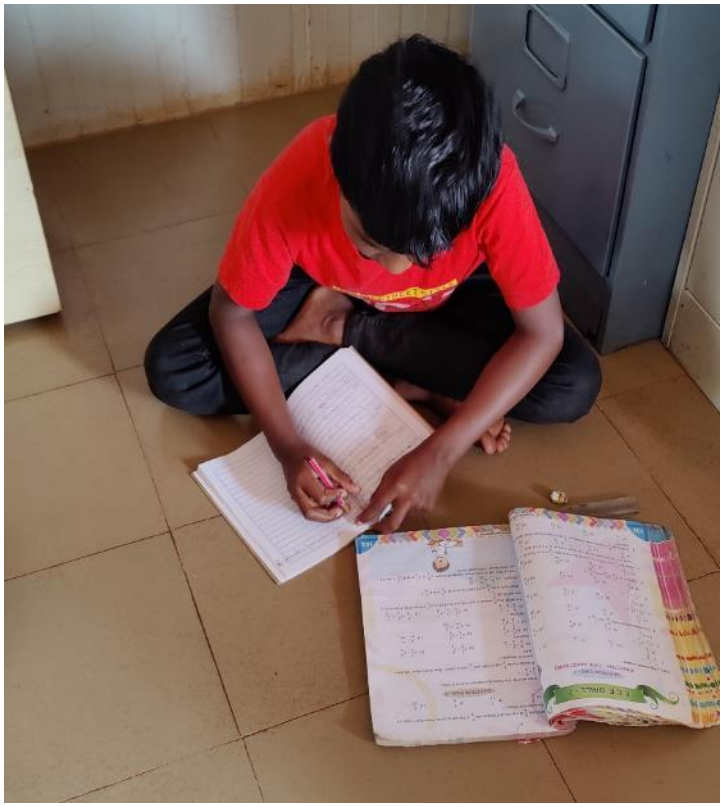
ENGLISH

I really enjoy English class. I'm actively working on improving my spelling by reading more books so that I can perform better in dictation exercises. After dictation, I correct my spellings and try to remember the correct ones for future use.

In preparation for the August 15th play, I practised my dialogues. Since my dialogues were short, I could easily memorize them. In English class, I'm taught by Sangita didi, Bina didi, Bikanti didi, and Kamli didi. I've read many stories in English class, including "George's Marvellous Medicine," "The Magic Finger," "The Enormous Crocodile," "The BFG," "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory," "Black Beauty," and "The Witches."

I pay full attention during English class and have learned some poems such as "Who" by Sri Aurobindo, "A Tree," and "Invitation." To improve my language skills, I try to speak in English as often as I can.



In addition to reading books, I've also watched movies during English class. Some of the movies I've watched include "The Brave," "A Little Princess," "Free Willy," "Charlie Chaplin," and "The Wizard of Oz." My favourite movie is "A Little Princess."

I don't fall asleep in English class, and I particularly enjoy studying grammar. In English class, we cover a variety of activities, including textbook work, grammar, free reading, group reading, dictation, and movies. When I have any questions or doubts, I don't hesitate to ask the teachers for help. I have also learned several songs, and my favourite is "Like a Small Boat." In grammar, we've studied topics such as adjectives, nouns, verbs, sentences, and more.
