

SONALI GOUDA

DATE OF BIRTH – 30th SEP - 19

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2023-24 (Second Term)

INTRODUCTION: Sonali is a cheerful and lively girl who always wears a smile. Energetic and constantly on the move, she brings vibrancy to her surroundings. Her favourite colour is red, and she takes pleasure in tidying up the group when arriving early. She enjoys having breakfast and lunch in the hostel.

CIRCLE TIME: During circle time, Sonali sings melodiously and strives to join in with others. Although she occasionally faces difficulties with certain words, she puts in her best effort. She has mastered many songs and mantras, adding actions to her performances.

MATHEMATICS: In maths class, Sonali is progressing in counting up to 50, though she sometimes encounters confusion. She is also engaged in basic addition and subtraction, often through storytelling and object manipulation. Sonali finds joy in collecting items like stones, leaves, and twigs for counting and play.

PROJECTS: Sonali enthusiastically embarked on a project about animals. Delighted to learn about various creatures, she now confidently identifies different animals and can even mimic their sounds. Her excursion to the village to observe pet animals further enriched her understanding, reflected in her detailed drawings.

LANGUAGE: Sonali enjoys listening to stories during language class and comprehends both Hindi and English. She actively participates by repeating after teachers and occasionally shares stories from her imagination. Her drawings vividly capture the essence of these tales. Sonali is also expanding her English vocabulary and can confidently sing songs in both languages.

GAMES: Before engaging in games, Sonali ensures she is warmed up and ready. She exhibits good sportsmanship and enjoys playing in the sand pit, where she often constructs various structures. Encouraged by teachers, she remains resilient even when faced with challenges during play.

CELEBRATIONS: On 25th December, Sonali sang a song with her friends titled "I am a Little Star." Her performance was delightful, and she eagerly awaited the arrival of Santa Claus.

On 26th January, she enjoyed watching a parade on television, immersing herself in the festivities. For Basant Panchami on 14th February, Sonali participated in a song rendition of "Namo Sharda." She relished the programs and savoured the Prasad offered during the celebration. On 21st February, she took part in a play titled "Maata Ka Rishta," portraying a child's character. Despite feeling nervous, Sonali delivered her lines impeccably, showcasing her best efforts. She also enjoyed dressing up for the occasion.

Lastly, on 25th March, Sonali celebrated Holi with enthusiasm, revelling in the colourful festivities and indulging in delicious sweets.
