

Anjali Muduli

DOB- 13th April-13

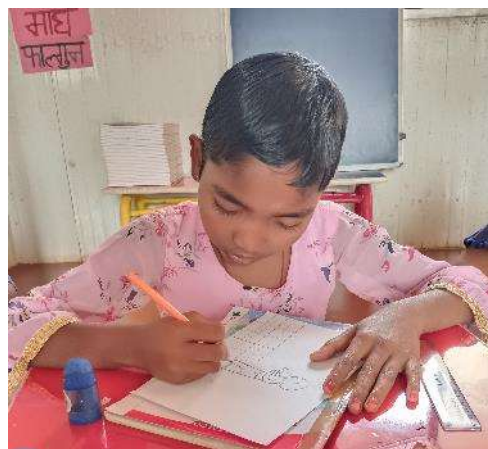

Annual Report for 2023-24 (second Term)

Annual Attendance 355 days out of 366 days

INTRODUCTION: Anjali, aged 10 and residing in the hostel, has developed self-sufficiency in tasks such as laundry and personal care. She epitomizes sincerity and obedience, maintaining friendly relations with her peers and presenting herself neatly at school. Anjali displays a proactive approach to her academic responsibilities, diligently completing homework and tasks with enthusiasm. Her unwavering focus in class sets her apart as a role model within her peer group.

ENGLISH: Anjali consistently demonstrates attentiveness during lessons and makes efforts to speak English fluently. While she can read easy books proficiently, she finds it challenging to read larger words. Despite this, she comprehends the stories well and can effectively explain them. Anjali's handwriting is neat and tidy, and she can write both big and small alphabets accurately in her notebook. During dictation, she usually spells most words correctly. Additionally, she completes her

English homework on time and demonstrates a strong understanding of the lessons, including the sounds of all the alphabets.

HINDI:

Anjali demonstrates exceptional diligence and intelligence in her work. She completed writing alphabets and matras swiftly with excellent handwriting. Anjali excels in reading and storytelling, exhibiting confidence and clarity. She is proficient in Hindi counting up to 50 and is knowledgeable about months and weeks in Hindi. Anjali's portrayal of a tree in the play "Goats and Children" was commendable. She depicted a lotus for the Mother's birthday.

PROJECTS:

Food Topic: Anjali is an attentive and curious student who actively participates in class discussions. During the food topic, she showed sincere dedication and patience, assisting teachers in creating charts and engaging in cooking activities with her peers. She learned to prepare various dishes such as chapatti, Dal, and French fries, demonstrating a keen interest in the culinary arts. Through her drawings and engagement with the topic, she gained valuable knowledge about the importance of food, its sources, different types, and healthy eating habits.

Occupation Topic: In the occupation topic, Anjali exhibited her ability to quickly grasp new information and retain it effectively. She actively participated in activities and even delivered a presentation on police during the assembly. Through her drawings and understanding of the topic, she learned about the significance of different occupations and their relevance in society. Anjali confidently answered questions related to occupations, showcasing her comprehension of the subject matter.

Transportation Topic:

Anjali found enjoyment in exploring the transportation topic, creating pictures and categorizing vehicles into different modes of transportation with her peers. She utilized various resources such as videos and picture books to enhance her understanding of transportation systems, including the invention of the wheel and road signals. Anjali actively contributed to group activities and discussions, demonstrating her grasp of the topic.

Solar System Topic:

Excited about learning something new, Anjali enthusiastically participated in the solar system topic. She displayed a curiosity about space, asking numerous questions and engaging in activities with her classmates to create charts and presentations.

Through videos and songs, she absorbed information about the solar system and confidently delivered a presentation on Earth. Anjali's attentiveness, concentration, and active involvement in class discussions reflect her eagerness to learn and understand complex concepts.

MATHS:

Anjali is quite focused during mathematics class and has keen interest in it. She is currently doing 2nd - grade Maths book. She knows the multiplication table till 11, and she can multiply four- and three-digit numbers. She can also multiply a two- digit number with a single digit number mentally. She has a good understanding of word problems and can solve independently.

ARTS:

Anjali eagerly embraces all activities in the art class, displaying a keen interest in drawing and colouring. She exhibits a preference for nature and animal themes in her artwork, meticulously applying colours to bring her creations to life. Anjali's aptitude for paper folding is notable, as she quickly master's techniques to create intricate shapes like stars and butterflies.

DANCE: Anjali excels in dancing and harbours a strong passion for the art form. With the ability to quickly learn new steps, she dances with enthusiasm and energy. Her love for dance extends to various genres, and she eagerly embraces the opportunity to learn the Assamese dance.

PUZZLES:

Anjali likes solving puzzles because she thinks that her thinking power increases when she does puzzles. She can do up to 200-250 pieces of puzzles with her friends. She can pay attention in the class till the time is over, she never comes late in the class. She is a very helpful girl, always willing to help her friends if they are unable to solve the puzzles.

SINGING AND DRAMA:

Anjali exhibits a remarkable ability to swiftly learn song lyrics and confidently performs without hesitation. She takes pleasure in reciting poems and leads her group in singing activities, displaying a natural affinity for rhythm and melody.

GAMES:

While Anjali's preferred game is base-kickball, she has begun to engage more actively in sports and consistently participates in field activities.

Demonstrating enthusiasm during exercises, Anjali ensures proper execution. However, her occasional inclination to engage in conversations with friends instead of active participation may be noted.

SENSE DEVELOPMENT: Anjali displays a strong affinity for Sense Class, eagerly participating in a variety of sensory-related activities. Her enthusiasm for the tasks at hand is apparent, and she approaches them with keen interest and attention to detail. Anjali's work is consistently commendable, as she strives to complete her tasks neatly. Not only does she enjoy the activities herself, but she also readily assists others once she has finished her own work. Anjali actively engages in games such as "Leader-Leader Change the Action" and mirror walking, further enhancing her Sense Class experience.

CELEBRATION:

