Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

Maths

Dutika, is studying 2nd -grade maths. She enjoys mathematics but sometimes gets distracted in class. She actively engages in her studies and isn't hesitant to ask questions to clarify doubts. She is working on multiplication and division of three-digit numbers, which can be challenging, particularly in multiplication.

Projects-

Birds

Dutika, a curious individual, was excited to explore the world of birds. While she encountered initial challenges in recognizing some birds, she made progress through her bird-watching experiences. She actively engaged in class discussions and endeavoured to provide complete responses to questions. Dutika showed a keen interest in understanding the differences between bird types, their features, and adaptations. She learned about the four bird categories and enthusiastically embraced new terms related to birds. She created a book that featured her own bird drawings and descriptions, reflecting her dedication to the project. She actively sought her peers' assistance in drawing.

Occupation

Dutika wants to become an artist when she grows up because she loves to draw, and she makes very beautiful drawings. She made a very neat and clean drawing of an artist and coloured it beautifully. When she was asked some questions, she was not able to answer confidently.

Hindi

Dutika is proficient at reading simple books, though she readily seeks assistance when confronted with challenging words. Her reading pace is unhurried, but she makes conscientious efforts to maintain accuracy. Weekly group reading sessions showcase her dedication to delivering a strong performance. Notably, she needs to focus on increasing her reading speed. Weekly dictation exercises reveal competent spelling skills, although challenging words occasionally pose difficulties. She has acquired the fundamentals of grammar, including gender (ling), numbers (vachan), and vand vichhed. Although she initially found these concepts daunting, her determination and repetition have led to an improved understanding. When faced with questions, she invests time and effort to discover correct answers. Learning Havan mantras presented challenges, but her tenacity enabled her to master them gradually. In addition to her linguistic accomplishments, she has learnt new songs and poems. She is diligent in learning bird names and their sounds.

English

Dutika is a soft-spoken and attentive student who prefers to respond when directly asked. She is known for her excellent listening skills and actively engages with her teacher during class. Dutika puts forth her best effort to communicate in English, although she occasionally encounters challenges with pronouncing long or complex words. In such instances, she readily seeks assistance from her teacher to ensure correct pronunciation.

One area where Dutika aims to make improvements is her handwriting, which she acknowledges needs work. To enhance her handwriting skills, she has taken it upon herself to practice writing every night. She dedicates time to writing one or more pages of stories or any content of her choice, with the goal of refining her penmanship.

Dutika's love for English storybooks is a significant aspect of her academic life. She is capable of reading books at a level of three to four. While she reads independently, Dutika may occasionally encounter challenging or unfamiliar words. In such cases, she isn't hesitant to approach her teacher for guidance and assistance in decoding these complex terms.

Dutika needs to be more alert and active while learning songs and poems. She tends to appear drowsy in class, making it difficult for her to grasp the content. However, she enjoys watching movies attentively.

Odia

Dutika has Odia class on Mondays. She is not familiar with the language, so faces difficulty in understanding and speaking, but she enjoys the class. She has learnt some of the alphabets and is learning the rest now. She tries to write some of the alphabets by copying. She loves singing songs taught in the class.

Arts and Crafts

Dutika is fond of art class, particularly for drawing flowers, birds, and nature scenes. She enjoys crafting bird-themed projects and has created detailed drawings of bird body parts. Dutika is adept at working with oil pastel colours and shading techniques. She demonstrates strong skills in colouring and drawing while maintaining a high level of attentiveness.

Puzzles

Dutika shares a passion for puzzles, specifically 60, 70, 80, and 100-piece puzzles. Remarkably, she can complete puzzles independently in all these categories. She maintains a high level of concentration during puzzle-solving and delights in the images that the puzzles reveal. She's usually in a cheerful mood and occasionally engages in conversations with others.

Games and Sports

Dutika is a little monkey and likes to play several sports. She jumps around and Kicks the ball hard and catches the ball.
