

SARASWATI HANTAL

DOB-01-FEB-17

Annual Reports for 2023-24 (Second Term)

ANNUAL ATTENDANCE 358 DAYS OUT OF 366 DAYS

Introduction

She embraced activities like clay modelling, creating a panda bear with excitement. Saraswati actively engaged in learning animal sounds and enjoyed singing animal songs.

Saraswati is seven years old. There are total seven members in her family, father, mother, four sisters and a brother. Her father does farming and mother is a housewife. The eldest sister does not go to school and is helping her parents in farming. Her second sister goes to a government school. Laxmi which is her twin sister is also in AMVM and the youngest brother is very small and is at home.

Project

Flowers Topic: Saraswati found joy in presenting confidently and learning about flower names and significance.

Animals Topic: Saraswati demonstrated creativity in clay modelling and showed enthusiasm for learning about different animals through drawings and songs.

Clothes:

Saraswati is very regular for the classes. he is very quick in remembering and memorising many things. She also joined this group very recently but is able to understand most of the things and is able to answer the questions in English. She is very good at putting buttons on a shirt and folding them. She took time but has learnt how to fold her own clothes and keep them properly after washing them. She also made some origami clothes like frock, shirt, lehenga, and full pants.

Math

Saraswati is very quick in grasping new concepts which are taught. She is very good and familiar with all the numbers from one to one thousand. If a number is given to her then she is able to say the hundreds place, tens place and the ones place. She can break the numbers and expand them mentally but cannot write and show. She is very good in adding two digit with two digit, two digit with one digit and three digit with three digit and her mental calculations are amazing. She can understand and answer the story sums very easily. She can easily skip the numbers of two, three, four, five, six and seven.

English

Saraswati is a very sharp girl. She is very quick and can easily grasp what is taught to her. She has learnt the twenty-six alphabets in English. She can easily arrange all the letters in sequence from a to z both small and the capital letters. She is able to pronounce all the sounds of all the letters and also two letter sounds. Now she has also started reading the three letter words with the sounds. She is very careful and attentive while listening to stories, and when there is question put to her, she can easily answer them.

Hindi

Saraswati enjoys singing songs taught in class and does so very well. During story time, she listens attentively, but when asked to retell the story, she takes some time to gather her thoughts. Her progress in learning Hindi letters initially showed confusion, but she can now read all letters properly. Although she still requires time to read words, her reading skills have notably improved compared to her peers.

Art

Saraswati is a quiet and calm presence in the art class, preferring to speak less. Despite her reserved nature, she actively participates in all activities and enjoys drawing. She takes her time to ensure her work is well-finished, displaying patience and attention to detail.

Dance

Saraswati diligently performs her joint exercises before dancing and approaches each session with enthusiasm. She enjoys exploring different dance forms and maintains a cheerful demeanour while dancing. Although she may take some time to grasp new steps, her effort is commendable.

Puzzle

Saraswati loves to solve any puzzle given to her. She does the puzzles very fast with her friends. Saraswati is focused in different activities. She sits quietly during class.

Sense

Saraswati actively participates in senses class activities and approaches each task with interest. She completes her work neatly and takes pride in her drawings inspired by nature observations. Engaging in games like "leader-leader change the action" and "Chinese whisper" adds to her enjoyment of the class.

Games

Saraswati demonstrates a cheerful disposition and punctuality, actively engaging in exercises and games like hide and seek and Chain game. She enjoys running activities and shows improvement in punctuality.

