

HARSHIT GOUDA

DATE OF BIRTH – 11th – May - 19

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2023-24 (Second Term)

ANNUAL ATTENDANCE 271 Days Out of 366 Days

INTRODUCTION: Harshit is a 6-year-old boy who strives to attend school regularly. He enjoys playing with his friends and particularly likes engaging in running games. His attitude towards others is positive, and he readily responds when asked a question. Harshit makes an effort to come to school neatly dressed and clean. During mealtimes, he tries to eat quickly so he can join his friends in the sandpit, as they all go home together after lunch.

CIRCLE TIME: During Circle time, Harshit endeavours to sit properly with closed eyes. He chants the mantras softly, and if he gets stuck, he remains silent but still tries to recite after the teacher. He can recite the mantras properly without anybody's help. Additionally, he has learned many songs in Hindi and English and enjoys singing them with actions.

PROJECT: Harshit displayed great excitement while learning about animals. In project classes, he successfully completed the animal topic. He confidently identifies and names various animals, mimics their noises, and recognizes them. However, he may sometimes become confused when distinguishing between certain items during the project. He thoroughly enjoyed making drawings of various animals and also participated in a village walk. Furthermore, he engaged in art and craft activities, creating models of animals like dogs, fish, and butterflies.

MATHS: Harshit can count up to 50 without any assistance and sits properly during maths class. He demonstrates proficiency in matching objects, creating various shapes with geometry tools, and quickly identifying numbers when asked. He enjoys basic addition and subtraction through small stories and objects. During maths activities, he tries to complete tasks quickly and eagerly explores new concepts.

LANGUAGE: Harshit enjoys listening to stories in language class and can comprehend both Hindi and English. He tries to sit properly and attentively listens to stories. Sometimes, he repeats after the teachers, and at other times, he tries to tell stories from his imagination. He also enjoys illustrating stories and is actively learning English words, including being able to say his name in English. Moreover, he has learned songs in both Hindi and English and enjoys performing actions along with them.

GAMES: Harshit likes to engage in exercises and running before playing any game. He endeavours to behave properly with everyone during game time. He particularly enjoys playing in the sandpit, where he explores the swing, slide, and builds structures such as temples and houses. Even when he falls down, he remains encouraged by the teachers. He also enjoys participating in chain games.

CELEBRATIONS AND FESTIVALS:

On various occasions throughout the year, Harshit actively participated in celebrations and festivals: 25th December: Harshit sang a song with his friends, "I Am a Little Star." He performed admirably and was thrilled to see Santa Claus. 26th January: He watched the parade on TV, commemorating Republic Day. 14th February: On Basant Panchami, Harshit sang the song "Namo Sharda." He enjoyed the programs and also relished eating Prasad. 21st February: Harshit took part in a play called "Mata Ka Rishta." He played the role of an orange and delivered his lines properly, giving his best effort. 25th March: He celebrated Holi by playing with colours and enjoyed indulging in sweets.

