Report for 2023-24 (First Term)

INTRODUCTION

Aryan is a quiet boy who is five years old. He is usually regular but may occasionally miss school when there are village functions. When he arrives early, he enjoys playing with his friends until the teachers arrive. His favourite colour is red, and he maintains a good attitude towards both the teachers and other children.

CHANTING AND SINGING

During circle time, Aryan sits quietly with his eyes closed for chanting. He chants all the mantras in a soft voice, although he may sometimes struggle with certain words. Aryan sings songs and rhymes with actions and finds joy in performing the actions in each song. His favourite song is "Hari Naam Ki Dal Pai."

MATHEMATICS

In mathematics, Aryan has learned to count up to 30. He approaches all math activities with interest and determination. When he encounters difficulties, he puts in his best effort to overcome them. Aryan prefers sitting near the teachers in the class to receive more attention. He enjoys counting using natural objects like leaves, stones, and sticks and likes creating patterns with them. Additionally, he practices addition and subtraction with these objects. Aryan displays a keen interest in learning and strives to excel in his math skills.

PROJECTS

Aryan has completed two topics on fruits and vegetables. He can recognize various fruits and vegetables, as well as their colours. He takes pleasure in exploring these topics and has even created puppets and models of fruits and vegetables. Aryan enjoys the hands-on experience of tasting different fruits and vegetables. When he presented on the topic of bottle gourd, he felt a bit nervous but still gave his best effort.

CELEBRATIONS AND FESTIVALS

During Rath Yatra, Aryan enjoys participating in the procession and relishing the Prasad. On the 5th of July, he took on the role of an elephant in a drama titled "Chichi Bird," which he performed admirably. On the 15th of August, he performed an action song titled "I Salute My Flag." Despite being nervous and positioned in the first row while dancing, he put forth his best effort. On the 30th of July, he celebrated Rakhi by tying rakhis and enjoying laddoos. For Janmashtami on the 7th of September, he danced beautifully and revelled in wearing costumes. On the 19th of September, during Ganesh Chaturthi, he sang a song titled "1 2 3 4."
