Annual Report for 2023-24(second term)

Annual Attendance 306 days out of 366 days

Introduction

Ankush is an energetic and enthusiastic boy who excels in various activities. He demonstrates brilliance in his understanding of concepts and exhibits a genuine interest in his studies. Despite occasional visits to his village, Ankush remains committed to attending school regularly and actively participates in learning.

Projects

Ankush is a curious child who eagerly absorbs new concepts taught in class. He begins his day by brushing his teeth before joining circle time for chants and songs. He particularly enjoys learning new songs and sings them with enthusiasm and a smile. In the healthy habits topic, Ankush played an active role, participating in discussions and answering questions comprehensively. He created pictures and charts illustrating healthy habits and received guidance on proper tooth brushing techniques. Ankush learned about good habits through real-life activities such as nail cutting and maintaining personal hygiene.

Mathematics

Ankush, while intelligent, tends to rush through tasks, leading to errors in his answers. He also relies on others' answers without thoroughly considering them. He struggles to understand math concepts fully.

English

Ankush is a diligent student who consistently attends school. While he occasionally displays a mischievous streak in class, he makes efforts to concentrate on the lesson material. Throughout the academic term, Ankush has actively participated in learning various rhymes, including "The Ants Go Marching," "Old MacDonald Had a Farm," "A-Ram-Sam-Sam," among others.

During a special event on 21st February, Ankush showcased his talents by assuming the role of a narrator in a play titled "The Tree's Complaint." He executed his role admirably, delivering his dialogues with skill and precision.

Despite occasional moments of playfulness, Ankush demonstrates a commitment to his studies and actively engages in classroom activities, contributing positively to the learning environment.

Arts and Crafts

Ankush actively participates in all art activities, displaying a preference for drawing trees and animals with neatness and precision. His favourite colour, blue, complements his artwork, and he enjoys making paper balls in paper folding.

Games

Ankush is excellent in sports and very attentive in class. He loves playing games and listens attentively to instructions. He's known for his friendly nature, always engaging with others. His favourite games include "doctor-doctor," "back-to-back," and "fire on the mountain," among others.
