

SRABANI PANGI

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2023-24 (SECOND TERM)

DOB: 03rd - JAN - 19

ANNUAL ATTENDANCE 294 DAYS OUT OF 366 DAYS

Introduction

Srabani is described as a very good and intelligent girl who consistently performs well in her studies. She pays close attention to her teacher's instructions and articulates her thoughts effectively when questions are posed to her. Srabani demonstrates a strong focus on her studies and is a regular attendee at school. Additionally, she enjoys singing and actively participates in class activities.

Projects

Srabani is articulate and attentive in the project class. She actively participates in discussions and demonstrates a good understanding of the topics covered. Her engagement and enjoyment in the class are evident, particularly as she discusses the benefits of houses. She effectively communicates her ideas and enjoys the learning process.

Mathematics

Srabani demonstrates a solid understanding of math concepts, including addition and subtraction rules and techniques. She excels in solving word problems and contributes positively to class discussions, showcasing her proficiency in maths.

English

Srabani is a diligent and quick learner, particularly when it comes to remembering songs and rhymes taught in class. She has demonstrated proficiency in learning various rhymes and songs, including "Two Little Dicky Birds," "The Ants Go Marching," "Red is Amma's Bindi," and "Old MacDonald Had a Farm."

Participating in a play for the 21st February celebration, Srabani took on the role of a mother. Having only one line, she was able to remember it quickly.

Arts and Crafts

Srabani actively engages in all art activities, exhibiting skill in drawing trees and animals with cleanliness and precision. Her favourite colour is blue, reflecting her vibrant artwork.

Games

Srabani is a healthy and energetic girl who loves playing and running. She's agile and never fights with other children. She actively participates in exercises, running, and jumping and cooperates well with her peers. In minor games, she enjoys races, passing the ball behind her, and other activities. Her favourite game is "leader-leader change the action."

Celebrations and Festivals

Please refer to the group report.

